

Project Management Professional (PMP®)

The PMP® certification is a globally recognized and respected credential, demonstrating a solid foundation of knowledge from which you can competently practise as a project manager, lead and direct project tasks, identify clear direction, in an efficient, timely manner, and with quality. By obtaining this credential, you validate your commitment to the profession of project management.

Certification Highlights

- Awarded by Project Management Institute, PMI®, which was founded in 1969 as a Not-for-Profit Professional Association
- The first PMP certification was launched in 1984. Since 2007, it has been awarded with the ANSI/ISO/IEC 17024 accreditation from the International Organization for Standardization (ISO)
- By Dec 2013, there are 594,603 certified PMPs worldwide come from industries ranging from healthcare, telecommunications, education, finance, construction to information technology

Examination Outline

I. Project Initiation	13%
II. Project Planning	24%
III. Project Executing	30%
IV. Project Monitoring and Controlling	25%
V. Project Closing	8%

More about the certification: <http://www.pmi.org/>

Examination Highlights

- A 4-hour Computer-Based Testing (CBT) examination
- 200 multiple-choice questions, of which 25 are considered as pretest questions which do not affect the overall score
- Exam fee: US$555 for non-PMI member, US$405 for PMI member
- Once registered, the eligibility for examination is 12-months. You may take the examination up to 3 times within this 12-months period should you not pass in the first attempt

Chartered Requirement

- Educational and project management experience requirement*
 - For bachelor's degree holders and/or above: A minimum of 36 months of unique non-overlapping professional project management experience during which at least 4,500 hours are spent on leading and directing project tasks
 - For other education qualifications: A minimum of 60 months of unique non-overlapping professional project management experience during which at least 7,500 hours are spent on leading and directing project tasks
- 35 contact hours of formal education or training
- Pass the PMP examination
- Candidates are required to earn and report 60 professional development units (PDU) within a 3-year cycle

* Project management experience must be accrued within 8 years by the date of application. Leading and direct project tasks are identified in the PMP examination specification

Training Highlights

- 47 hours of professional training which includes:
 - Instructor-led classroom training (36 hours)
 - Mock examination and examination drill (7 hours)
 - Bonus Project Management Workshop (4 hours)
- Emphasis is placed on examination skills and the practical application of project management expertise
- Regional project case studies will be discussed
- Trainer has significant and up to date co-operation experience with PMI
- Free re-sitting for those who fail the exam and have 80% of attendance or above
- Eligible for Continuing Education Fund (CEF)

Master Trainer

Mr. Kenric Li Yu Hin

- Reviewer, PMBOK® 4th edition
- Holder of PMP and PMI - RMP (Risk Management Professional)
- PMI Board Support Committee member (2010 - 2013)
- Vice President, Education, PMI HK Chapter (2007-2009)
- Over 10 years of Asia Pacific regional business analysis, project management and consulting experiences
- Trained up project managers of over 15 countries

KORNERSTONE LIMITED

15/F, Hip Shing Hong Centre, 55 Des Voeux Road, Central, Hong Kong

Tel: (852) 2116 3328

Fax: (852) 2116 3571

Email: enquiry@kornestone.com

Website: <http://www.kornestone.com>